

RIVER RUNS RED WITH BLOOD; CHOKED WITH BODIES OF SLAIN

TURKS DEFEAT BRITISH RUSH

(By Associated Press.)
BERLIN, June 8.—A Constantinople dispatch says that the Turks repulsed the British attacks at Seddul Bahr, and that the bodies of thousands of dead Englishmen covered the field.

PATRIOTIC OPEN AIR EXERCISES TONIGHT

PROGRAM TO BE GIVEN IN HONOR OF THE BATTLESHIP
NEVADA'S FLAGS

Under the auspices of Gettysburg corps, No. 132, W. R. C., patriotic exercises will be held this evening at 7:30 in front of the Mizpah hotel. The service will be in honor of the flags of the superdreadnaught Nevada, which were placed on exhibition yesterday in the windows of Rotholz's store. The band stand will be used, as well as a piano loaned by the Mizpah management. Rev. R. W. Bayless will officiate as master of ceremonies. Probably the Tonopah military band will assist, but that is not yet definitely determined. Following is the program:

"America," sung by all; solo, "Dixie Land," Master Brissell; recitation, John and William Cuddy; song, "We're Tenting Tonight," mixed quartette; address by Mrs. M. S. Crisler; tenor solo, "My Own Nevada," Layoy Davis; address, J. A. Sanders; "Star Spangled Banner," sung by all.

EIGHTY-FIVE MINERS LEASING IN MIDWAY

NEW EQUIPMENT IS BEING IN-STALLED PREPARATORY TO WORK IN NEW SHAFT

There are now eighty-five miners engaged in leasing in the old workings of the Midway Consolidated Mines company above the 500-foot level, occupying practically all the workings of that portion of the property. One shipment of ore went out yesterday and there is every indication that ore will now be forwarded steadily.

At the new shaft the Balliet counterbalance is being installed. In a day or two the new hoist and machinery will be put in position, after which Superintendent Douglas will begin sinking. Two shifts will be put to work on the start.

THAT SHIRTWAIST PARTY

Even Old Sol is taking a benign interest in the shirtwaist affair that the Elks are going to pull off Thursday evening—the event not the apparel. The way Tonopah is heating up in anticipation of this party assures that it will be of great success and coats and vests will very properly be barred, bars being much in vogue this season.

CASE STILL IN PROGRESS

The examination of Al Thackery, Don Ritchie and J. J. Connors before United States Commissioner J. H. Evans, which was begun yesterday on the charge of violating the Mann white slave law, is still in progress. The examination of witnesses, particularly the women entertainers, is particularly searching and prolonged.

Bullion Shipped By Belmont Co.

• Sunday's shipment of bullion by the Tonopah Belmont Development company consisted of 83 bars, weighing 166,704 ounces. The gold and silver value being computed at 60 cents an ounce, the shipment was worth $100,000. The cleanup was for the latter half of May.

OLD PIONEER IS DEAD AT BISHOP

JAMES G. FORD PASSES AWAY
AFTER A USEFUL LIFE

Word reached Tonopah this morning of the death of James G. Ford at Bishop, Cal., at 6 o'clock last evening. The deceased will be mourned by many people in Tonopah and elsewhere in Nevada. He was born in Missouri 68 years ago, coming to Nevada in 1867. He located first in Lander county and then removed to Eureka. He engaged extensively in ranching and in raising sheep, cattle and horses.

In 1903 he came to Tonopah and two years later he engaged with John Clendenning in the livery business, remaining three years. He then went to Fish Lake valley and acquired a large tract of land. He was a member of the Masonic order. Mourners are his widow and the following children: James Ford of Bishop, Claude of Eureka, Leon of Los Angeles; Mrs. John G. Wheeler, San Francisco; Mrs. William O'Neill, Reno; Mrs. Dr. O'Neill, Bishop; Mrs. Sam Forman, Goldfield. The funeral will take place at Fish Lake.

LARGE CROWDS ARE DRAWN BY BOXERS

Roy Moore, Johnnie Sudenberg and Jack Dempsey, who are training in Goldfield for their contests here at the Airdome Friday, June 11, are having more interest shown by daily crowds than has been manifest since the Gans-Nelson contest of 1906 and will conclude their training here on Thursday at the Big Casino.

Jack Bratton, who meets Roy Moore for the featherweight championship of the Pacific coast on that day, will work daily at the Big Casino and will conclude training tomorrow and from the number who are placing their money on him it appears that he will enter the ring a favorite.

NEW BOOKS RECEIVED AT THE PUBLIC LIBRARY

The free public library has lately received the following new books: The Turmoil, by Tarkington; The Harbor, by Poole; Ruggles of Red Gap, Wilson; Angela's Business, Harrison; A Far Country, Churchill. The librarian requests that the following books be returned promptly: The Silver Horde, Roger Paulding Ensign, Creators, Redus of the Purple Sage, Mrs. Red Pepper.

Anyone wishing magazines to send away can be liberally supplied by calling at the library.

ONE-ARMED SOLDIERS ARE MADE USEFUL

(By Associated Press.)
PARIS, June 8.—Soldiers in hospitals of the Somme, who have lost an arm, are being trained in the use of the remaining members by Leon Coblenz of Abbeville, who, during 35 years' experience, has developed a marvelous dexterity with one arm. Little by little he became able to dress himself, make his toilet, lace his shoes, tie his cravat, peel fruit, do his own gardening and trim his own finger nails. He swims, rides a bicycle, plays the piano and has a license as a conductor of a motor-car. Now he is spending his time in the hospitals wherever there are convalescents lacking an arm, showing them how they can get along in life nearly as well as if they had two.

TRAWLER SUNK BY SHELL

(By Associated Press.)
HULL, June 8.—The trawler Pentland was sunk in the North sea by a shell from a German submarine. The crew was saved.

Both Russia and Germany Claim Victory in Battle Most Desperate

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, June 8.—Berlin and Petrograd describe fierce fighting in the Baltic provinces, the Germans claiming the victory. Petrograd, too, claims successes in what is termed the bitterest battle of this campaign. The opposing forces are fighting for control of the Dubysa river. Petrograd says the stream was choked with bodies and ran red with blood.

WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN RESIGNS

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, June 8.—Secretary of State William Jennings Bryan today submitted his resignation to the president and it was accepted. It was stated authoritatively that the resignation, which has been under consideration several days, was accomplished with the utmost good feeling between the secretary of state and the president. It resulted from differences of opinion about the note about to be sent to Germany. The resignation becomes effective tomorrow. Robert Lansing, counselor for the state department, automatically becomes acting secretary of state.

Advance Made On the Frontier

(By Associated Press.)
ROME, June 8.—General Cadorna, chief of staff, reported that the Italians are making methodical progress all along the frontier, taking important positions. Apparently the main body of the invaders has not yet crossed the Lsonza, but Cadorna detachments have entrenched themselves on the further side and are meeting with little resistance. A decisive battle is expected soon.

COMPLETION FINAL STEPS IN MERGER

CONSOLIDATION OF ROCHESTER
MINES AND WEAVER COM-PANIES CONCLUDED

(Special to the Bonanza.)
LOVELOCK, June 7.—The final step in the merger of the Rochester Mines company and the Rochester Weaver Mining company was taken today when the stockholders of Weaver voted to sell entire their holdings for 648,000 shares of the Rochester Mines company. Ninety-five per cent of the stock was represented. Favorable action on the Merger was taken by the stockholders of the Rochester Mines company a week ago. Judge J. P. O'Brien of San Francisco looking after the legal affairs of the Weaver company. The name of the Rochester Mines company was retained and the capitalization increased from 1,250,000 to 2,250,000 shares. The new Rochester mill is handling the ore from both properties. Sixty thousand dollars' worth of bullion was shipped in six weeks. President L. A. Friedman, also general manager of the Merger companies, says that the new mill, with an estimated capacity of 100 tons, is now treating 120 tons a day. "During June the company expects to ship $50,000 in bullion, due to the milling of higher grade ores from the Weaver property," he says.

KING'S CONDITION GRAVE

(By Associated Press.)
ROME, June 8.—An Athens dispatch says that the condition of King Constantine is grave.

HOTTEST DAY OF SUMMER

The thermometer at 2 this afternoon recorded 81 degrees. This is the warmest day of the summer.

Highest temperature yesterday, 78; a year ago, 58.
Lowest temperature last night, 56; a year ago, 34.

MEXICO CITY IS ABOUT TO FALL

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, June 8.—Official messages have reported the capture of Tuxpam by Villa forces. S. F. Jones, an Englishman, was killed, and Thomas Mallard, wife and baby, and A. T. Graves, all English, were wounded. Consul Sillman at Vera Cruz has reported that Obregon's victory over the Villa forces at Leon appears to be confirmed. He said it is reported that Obregon lost his right arm in the fighting.

LEON CITY OCCUPIED BY ITS CAPTORS

(By Associated Press.)
EL PASO, June 8.—The possible effect of the occupation of Leon by Obregon on the attitude of Carranza and Villa toward the president's warning is the most significant feature of the recent changes in the battle front. The fighting in the last two months

Casualty List Ten Thousand

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, June 8.—The Carranza agency has received a telegram from Obregon at Leon, estimating Villa's dead, wounded and captured at 10,000. There was no mention of himself as having a serious injury.

Villa-Angeles Revolt Ending

(By Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, June 8.—General Obregon has telegraphed to the Carranza consul that the battle of Leon means an end to the Villa-Angeles revolt. He said he expected General Gonzales would occupy Mexico City before the end of the week.

NOTE TO GERMANY IS PUT IN FINAL FORM

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, June 8.—After two hours' discussion of the note to Germany at a cabinet meeting, Secretary Tamm, on direction of the President, announced: "The note was gone over, discussed and put in final form. It will probably go forward to Berlin tomorrow." It is understood that only a few slight changes in phraseology were made at the meeting. The note was considered in the form in which it came after Secretary Bryan had spent several hours on it after a conference yesterday with the president.

CAPTAIN AND FAMILY GO DOWN WITH SHIP

SEVENTEEN LIVES LOST WHEN GERMAN SUBMARINE
ATTACKS

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, June 8.—Four more vessels, three of them neutrals, were sunk today by submarines near the British Isles. The neutrals were the Norwegians Trudvang, Superb and Glittering. In the case of the Belgian steamer Menapier the captain, his wife and daughter and twelve of the crew lost their lives. The Menapier sank in a few minutes.

ANCIENT AMPHITHEATER IS NOT TO FEEL WAR

(By Associated Press.)
VENICE, June 8.—The Italian military authorities have issued instructions to ships and airships to spare from injury the remains of the famous Roman amphitheater at Pola, the Austrian naval base on the eastern side of the Adriatic. The Italians claim this location is being used by the Austrians for military purposes, nevertheless they purpose to spare it.

DUKE'S DIVORCE VOID SO HE HAS TWO WIVES

(By Associated Press.)
NEW ORLEANS, June 8.—A decree of absolute divorce granted by the civil district court in New Orleans to the Duke of Mennari from his first wife was set aside today by the Louisiana supreme court. After the decree had been obtained the duke married Countess Rita Succoni here.

NAVAL ACADEMY IS NOW UNDER PROBE

CHARGES MADE THAT EXAMINA-TIONS WERE NOT HELD PROPERLY

(By Associated Press.)
ANNAPOLIS, June 8.—Rear Admiral Fullman, superintendent of the naval academy, who resumed his testimony before the court of inquiry that is investigating charges of irregularity in the examinations, asserted that Midshipman James E. Moss was primarily responsible for the whole scandal. Moss, the admiral said, was supported in his plea for clemency by two United States senators, a representative in congress, and two lawyers. If such forces, he said, are permitted control of such a case, it would not be possible to maintain the standard of discipline in the academy.

BANNER WHEAT CROP IS THE PREDICTION

POSSIBILITY OF ITS REACHING THE BILLION BUSHEL
MARK

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, June 8.—The greatest wheat crop the country has ever known is in prospect for the coming harvest. The federal crop reporting board has placed the prospective crop at 950,000,000 bushels. With continued good growing conditions it might reach a billion.

DROUGHT IN MINNESOTA

(By Associated Press.)
ST. PAUL, June 8.—Eighty saloons in ten Minnesota counties will be forced to discontinue as a result of the county local option elections. Two of twelve counties voted wet.

BUTLER THEATRE TONIGHT

Lezette & Hedges
Entertainers of International Fame
Something New to Tonopah

Gloria Mayne
High Class Musical Act

"THE NEW EXPLOITS OF ELAINE"

Sidney Drew Comedy

"THE TEST OF SINCERITY"
Drama
Come and hear the Good Music

Half an hour show for 10 cents